Update from the General Service Board

On Sunday, February 19, 2023, Class B Trustee Josh E. resigned from the General Service Board and as Trustee Director for the AA Grapevine Corporate Board. Please click here for the announcement from Jimmy D., Interim Chair of the General Service Board.

As many of you are aware, this is the second Trustee resignation in as many months. This has caused quite of bit of unease and there are more questions than answers at this time. Although very few details have been communicated through the service structure, there has been a direct communication to the current Delegates from Josh E. I will be sharing that directly with the DCMs, so please contact your DCM if you are interested in reading it.

As a result of these resignations, there will be a special Q&A meeting between the remainder of the General Service Board and the current Delegates some time later this month. I will share any information that comes out of that meeting, as well as any additional information moving forward.

Registration for the Northeast Regional Forum (NERF) 2023 is open!
